

St. Barnabas Parish Notes Sunday, August 20th, 2006

Welcome to Saint Barnabas Church and this service of worship. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us today. Here at St. Barnabas, we believe that everyone who enters these doors is God's guest. Page numbers refer to the red Book of Common Prayer, and hymns are found in the blue Hymnal 1982. If you are seeking a church exclusively for today, we thank you for celebrating with us and may God be with you as you travel. If you are searching for a new church community and home, we wish to respond, either today or on your next visit, in whatever manner you prefer. Please introduce yourself to one of our parish clergy as you depart. We invite you to complete one of the cards in the pew rack and simply hand it to a person of the clergy.

Prison Ministry Request: We have a request for batting for quilts. The women at the Mission Creek facility in Belfair have made 24 quilt tops and need more batting. They have been enjoying the variety of material you have donated and sew every chance they get. I understand the quilts are quite beautiful. The hope is to have the quilts finished in the fall for the various charities. Please leave in donations in the parlor. Thank you Donna Cederwall.

"Do you have children? If so, mark your calendars for Up and At'em day September 10th because that is the LAST day for sign-ups for the first Sunday school session which runs, tentatively, from September 17th through November 5th. Formation especially asks that you indicate your interest this year by formally registering to participate so that the teaching teams know who they will have particularly, their ages.

This year the teaching teams (we have three so far but could use one more!) are committing to preparing and running the five to six-week sessions and Formation, in turn, asks that the parents commit to attendance for those five to six weeks. Nothing is more dispiriting than to prepare programs to which no one comes, right? Formation is taking this process sufficiently seriously that if there aren't firm registrations for the Sunday School, the programs won't be offered, though child care will always be available.

You can register your children any time by emailing or calling John at (jsweeney@stbbi.org, 842-5601) or Jim Gallaher, the parish coordinator (jgallaher@stbbi.org).

Summer Fun for Parish Young People. This summer the young people ages 3 (potty trained) to 10 are invited to the library to do a "fun" activity from 10 until it is time to join the 10:00 services for the Eucharist. Sometime the activity will be watching one of the new Bible story videos and DVDs that are in the library, other times, it will be outdoor activity. Different parish members will host Summer Fun on the 1st, 3rd and 4th Sundays, while the 2nd Sunday will be the Intergenerational Service. For information, contact gillianallard@earthlink.net or call 780-2390
