THE WORD OF GOD

 THE FIRST READING (seated)

Acts 9:1-6

READER: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

THE RESPONSE (remain seated)

Psalm 30

ALL:

1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me / up * and have not let my enemies triumph \ over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried out to / you, *
and you restored me to \ health.

3 You brought me up, O Lord, from the / dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the \ grave.

4 Sing to the Lord, you servants of / his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his \ holiness.

5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an / eye, *
his favor for a \ lifetime.

6 Weeping may spend the / night, *
but joy comes in the / morning.

7 While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never be dis/turbed. *
You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the \ mountains."

8 Then you hid your / face, *
and I was filled with \ fear.

9 I cried to you, O / Lord; *
I pleaded with the Lord, \ saying,

10 "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the / Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your \ faithfulness?"

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy up/on me; *
O Lord, be my \ helper."

12 You have turned my wailing into / dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with \ joy.

(second half of chant)

13 Therefore my heart sings to you without / ceasing; *
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for \ ever.

READER: A Reading from the Revelation to John

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Come, risen Lord

THE GOSPEL

John 21:1-19

The Priest or Deacon reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

The Gospel of the Lord

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON (seated)

Dennis Tierney

THE NICENE CREED (standing as able)

Presiding Priest and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary; and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Leader and People pray responsively

The Deacon says

Called by the risen Christ to love and follow the Lord, let us pray to God for the needs of all believers and of all peoples everywhere.

Leader

For the holy churches in every place, and for the unity of all.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For this holy assembly and for all who gather in Christ.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For our new brothers and sisters illumined by the light of Christ.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For Michael our Presiding Bishop; Gregory our Bishop and Dennis, Jan, Nancy, Judith and Patricia our priests; and Dan our Deacon, and all who minister in Christ, and for all the holy people of God.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For the world and its leaders, our nation and its people.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For all those who go in harm's way to serve, both here at home and in lands far away, and for their families and loved ones who also serve as they wait for the time of reunion.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For all those in danger and need, the sick, the suffering, and the oppressed, and for all the dead, especially... let us pray to the Lord.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For grace and power to welcome into our fellowship our sisters and brothers in Christ who are visiting, remembering that in welcoming a stranger we may welcome angels unaware.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For ourselves, our families, and those we love.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Remembering our most glorious and Blessed Virgin Mary, Barnabas, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ.

To you, O Lord.

Presider

Blessed are you, Lord of glory, and blessed is the Lamb who was slain. Hear the prayers we offer this day, and raise us with him to your throne in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

People And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

ANTHEM (seated)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether

Harold Friedell

Draw us in the Spirit's tether; for when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together, Thou art in the midst of them: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Touch we now thy garment's hem.

As the brethren used to gather In the name of Christ to sup, then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluia! Alleluia! So knit our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living Make as sacraments of thee, that by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully.

PRESENTATION ANTHEM (standing)

Choir, then all two times:
(three times)

Christ is ri-sen from the dead, tramp-ling down death by death, and on those in the tombs be - stow - ing life, be - stow - ing life!

The Presiding Priest continues

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Presiding Priest is to hold it or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

[Remember (NN. and) all who minister in your Church.] [Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.] [Remember _____.] [Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.]

And grant that we may find our inheritance with [the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, (with _____) and] all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

The Presiding Priest continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Traditional)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

ST. BARNABAS PRAYER CHAIN is a group of people devoted and committed to prayer for others. The chain is divided into two groups coordinated by Lee-ann Holland. She serves as a contact to activate the chain and pass on requests. Lee-ann makes contacts by email and telephone. The prayer chain will pray for anyone who requests prayer or who is submitted by someone else for prayers. All the members honor confidentiality and do not discuss those for whom they pray. It is not necessary to have a lot of detail or sometimes even a name in order to pray for someone or a situation. Unless instructed otherwise, the chain usually prays for about two weeks for a person or situation. The chain can be contacted by calling or emailing the Parish Administrator at the office or Lee-ann Holland | hollandx263@me.com | 206-842-3204.

OUTREACH

THANKS FOR KICKOFF JOY LUNCHEON
WOW – the JOY Luncheon was a resounding success! Seventy guests and parishioners enjoyed our kick-off luncheon on March 31. The event featured a fine-dining menu by Theresia Brannon, special flowers by Alice Reasoner, and beautiful music by Jan Parker-Peterson and Martha Tipps. Many guests dressed up for the occasion – a special treat on “casual” Bainbridge. It takes a lot of hands to make a meal for 70 come off smoothly. Thank you to the many volunteers (10 who were first-timers) who made this event so special: Joan Collins, Mary

Barnett, George and Patricia Robertson, Roger Clairmont, Phil Fergusson, Bill Galvani, Stephen Jennings, Barbara Herrick, Kathy Irvin, Barbara Bolles, Beth Gudmundson, Hilda Page, Prinnie Falkenhagen, Babe Kehres, Kathy Lacey, Mo Godman, Dick Eversole, Angie Bickerton and Steve Schmitz. Our chef, Theresia Brannon caters the Kiwanian breakfasts on Wednesday mornings and “gives back” by making the JOY Luncheon meal spectacular. We appreciate her devotion to this ministry. See the church newsletter for more information about our ministry and how you can be a part of it. Contact Kathleen Jennings | 206-780-9158 | jennings@bainbridge.net.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

FROM THE LIBRARY The books donated in November have now been placed on the regular shelves of the library. A list of all donated books over the past few years can be found in the white three-ring binder on the counter behind the computer. Catalogs from Christianbook.com are a great resource if you would like to order books for your own use. They can be found on top of the card catalog and it is easy to set up an account with them. The library is a quiet place to “get away from it all.” It is open during church office hours, but do check to see if there are any meetings taking place there. A list of newly donated books is coming soon. Contact Barbara Herrick | 206-842-2068.
