Presiding Priest The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presiding Priest Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

THE FIRST READING

Acts 3:12-19

READER: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. "And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out."

THE RESPONSE (remain seated)

Psalm 4

1979. Robert Knox Kennedy.

Sung by all:

1 Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my / cause; *
you set me free when I am hard-pressed; have mercy on me and hear my \ prayer.

2 "You mortals, how long will you dishonor my / glory; *
how long will you worship dumb idols and run after false \ gods?"

3 Know that the Lord does wonders for the / faithful; *
when I call upon the Lord, he will \ hear me.

4 Tremble, then, and do not / sin; *
speak to your heart in silence upon your \ bed.

5 Offer the appointed / sacrifices *
and put your trust in the \ Lord.

6 Many are saying, "Oh, that we might see better / times!" *
Lift up the light of your countenance upon us, O \ Lord.

7 You have put gladness in my / heart, *
more than when grain and wine and oil in \ crease.

8 I lie down in peace; at once I fall a / sleep; *
for only you, Lord, make me dwell in \ safety.

THE SECOND READING

1 John 3:1-7

READER: A Reading from the First Letter of John

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

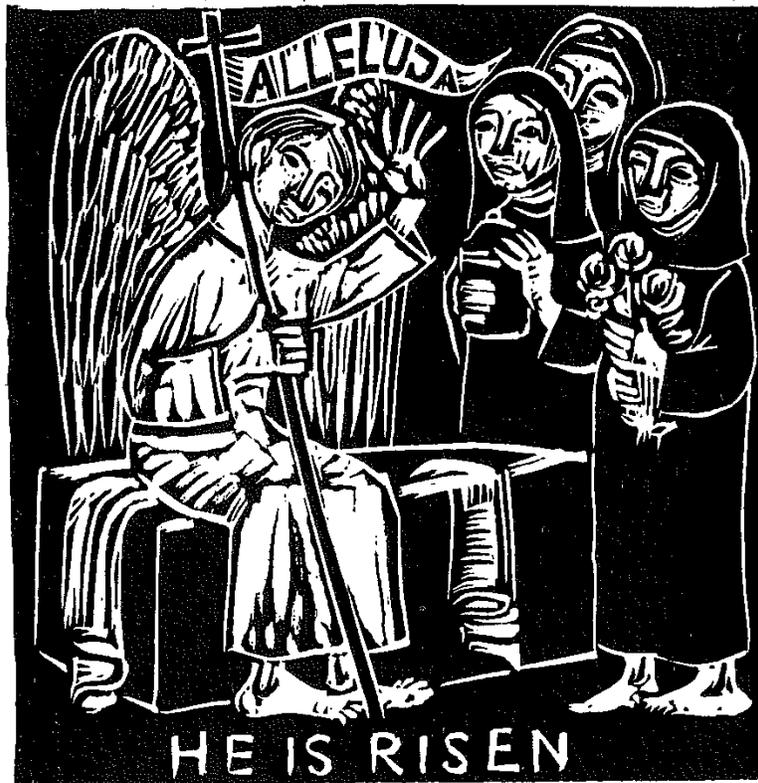

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 24:36b-48

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus stood among the disciples and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you-- that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

Presiding Priest and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary; and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Leader and People pray responsively

In the body of the risen Christ, the invisible God walks with us. Let us pray to God for our needs and the needs of all peoples.

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for The Church of Ireland, the Most Revd Richard Lionel Clarke, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland. In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for St. James and St. Columba, both in Kent. For Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Gregory, our Bishop; Karen, our Rector; Dan, our Deacon; Nancy, Judith and Patricia, our Assisting Priests; all who minister in Christ; and for all the holy people of God.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

For the victims of war, and for all those who go in harm's way to serve, both here at home and in lands far away, and for their families and loved ones.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

For grace to welcome into our fellowship our sisters and brothers in Christ who are visiting this morning, remembering that in welcoming strangers we may welcome angels unaware.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

For the world and its leaders, our nation and its people.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

For all those in need, the suffering and the oppressed, travelers and prisoners, especially... And we pray for the dying and those who have died, especially... Let us pray to the Lord.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

For ourselves, our families, for the ones we love and the ones we find hard to love.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

That Christ may fill us with the joy and happiness of his holy resurrection.

Glory and praise to you, living God.

Remembering our most glorious and blessed Virgin Mary, Barnabas, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ.

To you, O Lord our God.

Presiding Priest

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, who opens our minds and hearts through the risen Christ. Hear our prayers which we offer in the hope of glory, and breathe upon us with your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presiding Priest The peace of the Lord be always with you.

ANTHEM

I got me flowers

Daniel Burton

I got me flowers to strew thy way; I got me boughs off many a tree:
But thou wast up by break of day, And brought'st thy sweets along with thee.
The Sun arising in the East, Though he give light, and the East perfume;
If they should offer to contest With thy arising, they presume.
Can there be any day but this, Though many suns to shine endeavour?
We count three hundred, but we miss: There is but one, and that one ever.

PRESENTATION ANTHEM

Christ the Lord is risen a - gain! Christ has bro - ken ev - ery chain!

Now through all the world it rings that the Lamb is King of kings.

Refrain

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia! Christ, our Pas - chal Lamb in - deed,

Christ, to - day your peo - ple feed. Al - le - lu - ia!

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
