

The Law of Three

A Wisdom Teaching Day with George Cole
Saturday, March 18, 9:30am - 3:30pm
St. Barnabas Parish Hall

George Cole first encountered the work of G.I. Gurdjieff in the 1970's and has worked with groups since that time. In addition he attended a one-year intensive course at a Fourth Way school in the U.S. begun by J.G. Bennett, a pupil of Gurdjieff. He moved to Bainbridge Island in 1995 to join Arcadia, a work group centered on Gurdjieff teachings. The group continues to this day, meeting on Tuesday evenings and one weekend each month. Their practice, called The Fourth Way, or the way of balance, includes work with attention through inner exercises, meditation, Gurdjieff movements, focused practical work sessions and verbal observation of their work in group. George is married to Pat Speidel, whom some of you met at our November Wisdom Day. Please join us at this Lenten Retreat for George's introduction to The Law of Three.

From her Wisdom Way of Knowing, Cynthia Bourgeault draws on the wisdom of G.I. Gurdjieff:

“The Work,” as Gurdjieff’s teachings are known, still continues around the world . . . It’s real influence during these past six decades has been more subtle, more at the level of a quiet tilling of the ground of modern cultural consciousness until gradually the conditions have again become ripe for the emergence in our own time of genuine Wisdom teaching and teachers.
