

I give you a new commandment: love one another as I loved you

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

Maundy Thursday

March 29, 2018 ♦ 6:00 p.m.

We enjoy a time for fellowship until 6:15 when the bell rings and we are seated for dinner.

Our offerings of food and money tonight will go to Chaplains on the Harbor. Please be generous.

Our evening begins with a spoken introduction and prayer, after which we sing together:

cantor 1. Is not the cup we bless and share the Blood of Christ out-poured?
all sing 2. You give your - self to us, O Lord; then self - less let us be,

Do not one cup, one loaf, de - clare our one - ness in the Lord?
to serve each oth - er in your name in truth and char - i - ty.

all sing You sat - is - fy the hun - gry heart with gift of fin - est wheat; come give to us, O sav - ing Lord, the bread of life to eat.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER AND BLESSING OF OUR SHARED MEAL.

Blessed are you, O God, for you have brought forth bread from the earth.

Blessed are you, O God, for you have created the fruit of the vine.

In the beginning you watered the earth that man and woman might have food and drink.

You gave to your servant Sarah bread to strengthen her family on their journey, and wine to make them glad.

You called Moses and his people out of bondage and refreshed them with food in the wilderness.

You gave Mary and Jesus their daily bread to share.

And here at your table you offer us bread and wine for the journey to nourish us as sons and daughters.

And so with all our sisters and brothers, before us and beside us, we praise you from our hearts for your unending greatness.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of po - wer, God of might: _____
 Bless - ed is the One who comes in your Name, for us to greet; _____

all that is pro - claims your Name; _____ glo - ry to your ho - ly reign.
 sing ho - san - na to our King, _____ and pre - pare for him to meet.

music: Dorothy Howell Sheets, arr. Charles Rus

Among friends, gathered round a table, Jesus took bread, and, having blessed it, he broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying,

“This is my body which is given for you.”

In the same way he took wine, and, having given thanks for it, he poured it out and gave the cup to his disciples, saying,

“This cup is the new relationship with God, sealed with my blood. Take this and share it. I shall drink wine with you next in the coming kingdom of God.”

So now, following Jesus' example, we take this bread and this wine; the ordinary things of the world through which God will bless us.

And, as Jesus offered thanks for the gifts of the earth, let us also celebrate God's goodness.

Lord Jesus Christ, present with us now, as we do in this place what you did in an upstairs room, breathe your Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that they may be heaven's food and drink for us, renewing, sustaining and making us whole, and that we may be your body on earth, loving and caring in the world.

You are above us, O God, You are beneath.

You are in air, you are in earth, you are beside us, you are within.

O God, you are in the betrayed and suffering people of our world just as you were in the broken body of Jesus.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Bread is broken. As the Bread is brought to the tables all sing.

Song leader, then all and after the verses

Taste and see the good - ness of the Lord.

RP

We pass the consecrated Bread to each other saying these words: "The Body of Christ, the Bread of Heaven."

After we have received the Bread, we enjoy dinner in silence, listening to music and readings from John's Gospel.

After supper the Presider says:

St. Luke tells us that as supper was ending, Jesus took the cup, filled it with wine and passed it among his friends, saying "This is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, remember me."

We pass the Cup to each other saying these words: "The Blood of Christ, the Cup of Salvation".

As the wine is brought to the tables all sing:

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and nev-er be hun-gry.

Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.

After all have received the wine, we hear the sound of the bell and follow the Deacon into the church, singing. Please find a pew at the front of the church and remain standing for the Gospel reading.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John (13:1-17, 31b-35)

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself.

Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet? Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.":

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All are seated.

AN INVITATION TO THE FOOT WASHING

The Lord Jesus, after he had supped with his disciples and had washed their feet, said to them, "Do you know what I, your Lord and Master, have done to you? I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done." I give you a new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you. By this shall the world know that you are my disciples: That you have love for one another.

A bell is rung to signal the end of Foot Washing.

THE STRIPPING OF THE ALTAR

The altar and chancel are now stripped of all vestments, decorations, and furnishings. After the altar is stripped, it is then washed with vinegar and the following hymn is sung. The stripped altar is a sign for us of the desolation Jesus experienced as all fled when he was arrested in the garden.

PSALM 22 (sung by the choir) My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Peter Hallock

The Gospel telling of Judas' betrayal is read.

Just as Jesus invited the disciples to stay with him to watch and pray, we too are invited to keep vigil. The church will remain open after the service for prayers.

Stay with me, re - main here with me, watch and
 No - ho pū, no - ho mai me ia'u, ki - a'i a pray watch and pray.

 pu - le, kiai a pule.

The watch vigil lasts until noon on Good Friday.

You may stay or return to the church at any time during the watch for meditation and prayer.

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus (Matthew 26:47-56)

While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; with him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people. Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, ‘The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him.’ At once he came up to Jesus and said, ‘Greetings, Rabbi!’ and kissed him. Jesus said to him, ‘Friend, do what you are here to do.’ Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him. Suddenly, one of those with Jesus put his hand on his sword, drew it, and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his ear. Then Jesus said to him, ‘Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword. Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then would the scriptures be fulfilled, which say it must happen in this way?’ At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, ‘Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But all this has taken place, so that the scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled.’ Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.
