

THE ENNEAGRAM INSTINCTUAL SUBTYPES: OUR 3 DEEP DRIVERS

A Wisdom Teaching Day

Sat. Nov. 10th
9:30am - 3:30pm

Learning your Enneagram style can offer up tremendous insight, and help you reconnect with your essential qualities and your divine nature.

Learning your Enneagram instinctual subtype can be as or more powerful in its illumination of why you do what you do, helping you open up to how life wants to flow through you right now. In spiritual teachings, our body's instincts are often seen as obstacles or corrupting influences that get in the way of God's will. It doesn't have to be that way.

Come discover the three deep instinctual drives that fuel your behavior, which one animates you most profoundly, and how this combines with your Enneagram point of view to create a distinct orientation. This level is particularly useful in learning to bridge persistent difficulties in relationships.

When we recognize and work with the life-supporting energies of our instincts, they can be liberated to better support us and others, rather than to unconsciously lead us into frustrating territory.

Sarah Walston LMHC, owner of Ninesight- Enneagram for Transformation, loves helping people live the lives their souls have been longing for. She is an IEA Accredited Enneagram Professional, a Certified teacher in the Narrative Enneagram, and a student of the Diamond Approach.
