Rite for All Souls

The Multitude of Saints

ORGAN VOLUNTARY

Adagio from "Symphonie V"

Charles-Marie Widor

 $\P$  All stand at the ringing of the bell

Choir: Kontakion (Give rest, O Christ, to your servants . . .)

Presider: Jesus says: All that the Father gives me will come to me;

and the one who comes to me I will not cast out.

There are not two kingdoms, a kingdom of life and a kingdom of death. There is only the kingdom of God, and we all dwell therein. This is a time of the year when we call to mind the bonds between the living and the dead. For in Christ all are made alive, and nothing is lost. We begin our worship in a great company, visible and invisible.

Presider: When we live...

People: We live in God.

Presider: When we die...

People: We die in God.

Presider: So whether we live or die...

People: We are God's possession.

A reading from the Book of Wisdom: Wisdom 3:1-9
"But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God..."

Collect for All the Faithful Departed (read by all)

Eternal Lord God, you hold all souls in life:
Give to your whole Church in paradise and on earth
your light and your peace;
and grant that we, following the good examples
of those who have served you here and are now at rest,
may at the last enter with them into your unending joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider: Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord:

People: And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Presider: May the souls of all the departed,

through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

People: Amen.

Then all sing: [to the tune of "Amazing Grace"]

My friends, I bid you all adieu; I leave you in God's care; And if I here no more see you, Go on - I'll meet you there.

Let all the saints terrestrial sing With those to glory gone; For all the servants of our King In heav'n and earth are one.

h The People sit as we call the roll of our own beloved departed.

If you wish to light a candle for the departed, you may come to the altar during the reading of names.

The choir sings it once, then all repeat it twice:

The Celebration of All Saints

Presider: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Then all sing:

Te Deum Laudamus

Music: Ode to Joy (Beethoven) Text adapted, Fritz Frurip

Praise to you, O God Almighty: You are Lord eternally.
All creation lauds your glory, singing praise supernally.
Angels cry to you never-ending,
Cry the heavens and pow'rs therein,
This, their hymn is chanted by the Cherubim and Seraphim:

"Holy, holy holy Lord God, Sa-ba-oth!" the angels cry; Heav'n and earth cannot contain the brightness of your majesty. Prophets, martyrs, and apostles With the holy Church confess: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Trinity, One God, is blest. Presider: The Lord be with you. People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

The Presider says the Collect for All Saints

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

A reading from the Revelation to John: Revelation 7:9-17

Voice 1

I saw a huge multitude, too numerous to count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

All

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

Voice 2

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

All

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Voice 1

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying,

Voice 2

"Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?

Voice 1

I said to him, "You are the one who knows." Then he said to me,

Voice 2

"These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Men

For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship day and night within God's temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

Women

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;

A11

For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

THE NICENE CREED

Presiding Priest and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary; and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SOLO Ave Maria Michael Lorenc

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus [Christ].
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Emily Neer, soprano

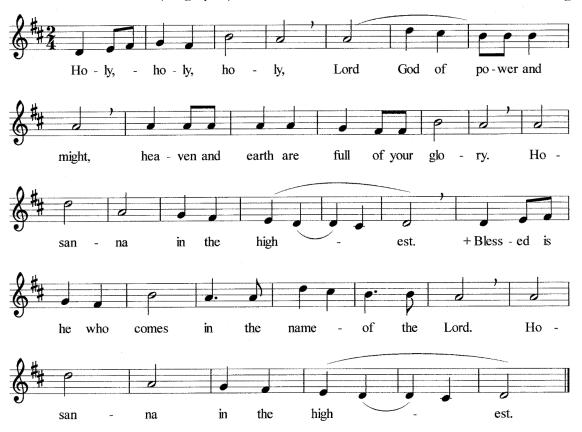

The people remain standing as able.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing (say),

The people remain standing as able.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation. Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Presider and People

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Presider continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Bishop Greg and all who minister in your Church. Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.

Remember the beloved souls whose names we have spoken this morning.

Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with Barnabas and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and for ever.

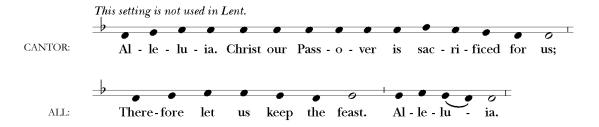

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
