

SEASON OF CREATION | CELTIC SERVICE HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST, PROPER 20

September 21, 2025 ♦ 10:30 a.m.

Kildalton Cross and Parish Churchyard Islay, Inner Hebrides, Scotland

WELCOME TO ST. BARNABAS

Your presence is a blessing. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of The Episcopal Church, simply relax into worship and let the rest of the congregation carry you through the liturgy.

Please know that all are welcome at Christ's table.

About Celtic Prayer and Spirituality

The form of Celtic Christianity that developed in the British Isles, beyond the reach of the Roman Empire and of the Roman Church, embraces the understanding of God's message of Divine presence in the rhythms of nature and in the simple, ordinary activities of life. The poetic appreciation of creation as a portal to God, and the awareness of the loving interconnectedness inherent in creation, are central to Celtic prayer and spirituality.

PRELUDE

All stand as able at the sound of the tower bell.

HYMNAL 428

6 So let us glorify and bless the God we bow before, the Father, Holy Spirit, Son, and praise him evermore.

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be our God who created all things.

People Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Presider and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE Sung three times.

Music: John L. Bell and the Wild Goose Worship Group from Come All You People.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

In the beginning O God, you shaped our souls and set their weave. You formed our bodies and gave them breath. Renew us this day in the image of your love. O great God, grant us your light. O great God, grant us your grace. O great God, grant us your joy this day. And let us be made pure in the well of your health.<sup>1</sup>

Creator of the fruitful earth, you have made us stewards of all things. Give us grateful hearts for your goodness, and steadfast wills to use your bounty well, that the whole human family, today and in generations to come, may with us give thanks for the riches of your creation. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST LESSON Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: "Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?" ("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?") "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me. Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Silence.

&lt;sup>1</sup> J. Philip Newell Celtic Prayers from Iona pg. 25

THE PSALM Psalm 79:1-9

First half of each verse: choir; Second half: all

1 O God, the heathen have come into your inheritance; they have profaned | your holy temple; *

they have made Jerusalem | a heap of | rubble.

- 2 They have given the bodies of your servants as food for | the birds of the air, * and the flesh of your faithful ones to the beasts | of the | field.
- 3 They have shed their blood like water on every | side of Jerusalem, * and there was no one to | bury | thëm.
- 4 We have become a | reproach to our neighbors, * an object of scorn and derision to | those a- | round us.
- 5 How long will you | be angry, O Lord? * will your fury blaze like | fire for | ever?
- 6 Pour out your wrath upon the heathen | who have not known you * and upon the kingdoms that have not called up- | on your | Name.

7 For they have | devoured Jacob * and made his dwel- | ling a | ruin.

8 Remember not our past sins; let your compassion | be swift to meet us; * for we have been brought | very | löw.

9 Help us, O God our Savior, for the | glory of your Name; * deliver us and forgive us our sins, for | your Name's | säke.

THE SECOND LESSON

1 Timothy 2:1-7

First of all I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God;

there is also one mediator between God and humankind,

Christ Jesus, himself human,

who gave himself a ransom for all —this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

₱ GOSPEL ACCLAMATION, CELTIC ALLELUIA Cantor, then all.

Verse: Live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ; strive side by side for the faith of the gospel.

THE GOSPEL Luke 16:1-13

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

I esus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were I brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.' Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

The Gospel of the Lord

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Silence.

THE CELTIC CREED From Iona Abby Worship Book. If you prefer to affirm your faith using the Apostle's Creed, it may be found on page 96 of the Book of Common Prayer.

We believe in God above us, maker and sustainer of all life, of sun and moon, of water and earth, of male and female. We believe in God beside us, Jesus Christ, the word made flesh, born of a woman, servant of the poor, tortured and nailed to a tree. A man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief, he died alone and forsaken. He descended into the earth to the place of death. On the third day he rose from the tomb. He ascended into heaven, to be everywhere present throughout all ages, and His kingdom will come on earth. We believe in God within us, the Holy Spirit burning with Pentecostal fire, life-giving breath of the Church, Spirit of healing and forgiveness, source of all resurrection and of eternal life. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Leader and People pray responsively.

Let us offer our prayers to the God of life, the one who gives breath to all creatures, responding after each petition: Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For the mission for the church throughout the world, for sharing the promise of abundant life and working for the welfare of all. We pray for our Presiding Bishop Sean; our Diocesan Bishop Phil; our Interim Dianne; our Deacon Dan; for Nancy, Judith, Patricia, and Steve, priests among us; and for all the baptized who serve in Christ's name.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for The Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan. In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for Episcopal Retirement Communities Episcopal Mission to Seafarers, and Seattle Service Corps.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

In our St. Barnabas Cycle of Prayer, we pray for our Outreach Ministry. We pray also for the ministries of the Parish Profile Committee as they seek to communicate the vitality of St. Barnabas.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For the leaders of the nations, and for all who make or influence decisions for the health of our planet, its creatures, and for the well-being of all peoples.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For peace with justice around the world, and for an end to war and violent competition for limited resources.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For all who suffer in mind, body and spirit, especially...; and for those we now name aloud or silently (...pause...). We pray for those who suffer because of environmental degradation. Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For environmental concerns that we lift up now either aloud or silently. (...pause...) Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For the fears we know, may they be turned to good use for the sake of your creation. Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For those who in their daily work are stewards and protectors of God's creation in ways large and small; for gardeners, farmers, and ranchers; for rangers and park managers; for fishers and foresters; for climate scientists, ecologists and activists and for all who work to restore and heal our wounded Earth.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For those we love but see no longer, especially... and for those we now name aloud or silently (...pause...). We pray for those holy women and men who taught us to marvel in all God's works.

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

For the many blessings of this life. For the beauty and wonder of your creation and for the knowledge of your presence in the people we meet, in the creatures you love, and for those blessings we now name aloud or silently... (...pause...).

Holy One, we pray: hear us, renew us, and strengthen us.

Presider

Glory be to you, our God who is above us, below us, around us, and within us. You are in all things yet contained by no thing. Teach us to search for you in the depths of our being and in the world around us. Strengthen and guide us as we seek to know you and serve you by supporting, tending and healing the good creation you have entrusted to us. Help us to know your delight in the beauty of creation and to recognize your presence in the people you so dearly love. Help us to know and serve you in the rhythm of our days, that we may be peacemakers and healers for the sake of your living Christ, the one who forever calls us to newness of life. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Presider and People

God of all creation, long-suffering, full of grace and truth, you formed us from nothing and give us life. You give your faithful people new life in the water of baptism. You do not turn your face from us, nor cast us aside. We confess that we have sinned against you and against our neighbor. We have wounded your love and marred your image in us. Restore us for the sake of your Son, and bring us to heavenly joy, in Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Presider

Come, O God of love and life. Fill our darkness with your light and our emptiness with your presence. Come refresh, restore, renew us. In our sadness, come as joy. In our troubles. come as peace. In our fearfulness, come as hope. In our darkness, come as light. In our frailty, come as strength. In our loneliness come as love. Come, refresh, restore, renew us. May the God of love and life forgive our sins and assure us of the great love known to us in Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

(From David Adam and Common Worship, adapted.)

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

H WELCOME, ANNOUNCEMENTS, BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

Prayer for a Birthday:

Watch over your child, O Lord, as her days increase; bless and guide her wherever she may be. Strengthen her when she stands; comfort her when discouraged or sorrowful; raise her up if she fall; and in her heart may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of her life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for a Wedding Anniversary:

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send therefore your blessing upon these your servants, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

PRESENTATION ANTHEM

Presider All that we have and all that we are God's gift to us.

So here we return a token of our wealth asking that it and all we possess be used to God's glory.

People Blessed be God for ever and ever.

CELTIC EUCHARISTIC PRAYER, Adapted from Iona Abby Worship Book and Enriching Our Worship Prayer 3

Presider The Lord be with you.People And also with youPresider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God..

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We offer you praise, dear God, and hearts lifted high for the communion of your love. Christ comes close to us and we come close to Christ.

Therefore, with the whole realm of nature around us, with earth, sea and sky, we sing to you.

With the angels of light who envelop us, with Michael and the host of heaven, with all the saints before and beside us, with Columba and Brigid, Patrick and Margaret, with brothers and sisters, east and west, we sing to you.

And with our loved ones, separate from us now, who yet in this mystery are close to us, we join in the song of your unending greatness.

Music: American folk melody; arr. Marcia Pruner, harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983).

All glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, Your Word has never been silent; You called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, You delivered them from bondage
And led them to a land of promise.
Of your grace, you gave Jesus
To be human, to share our life,
To proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

Blessed is our brother Jesus, who walks with us the road of our world's suffering, and who is known to us in the breaking of bread.

Loving God, through your goodness we have this bread and wine to offer, which the earth has given and human hands have made.

May we know your presence in the sharing of this bread so that we may know your touch in all bread, all matter.

We celebrate the life that Jesus has shared among His community through the centuries, and shares with us now. Made one in Christ, and one with each other, we offer these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice.

On the night of his arrest Jesus took bread and having blessed it he broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

In the same way he took wine and having given thanks for it he poured it out and gave the cup to his disciples, saying, "Drink this, all of you: This cup is the new relationship with God, sealed with my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Take this and share it. I shall drink wine with you next in the coming Kingdom of God.

Hear us, O Christ, And breathe your Spirit upon us And upon this bread and wine. May they become for us your body, vibrant with your life, Healing, renewing and making us whole.

And as the bread and wine which we now eat and drink are changed into us, may we be changed again into you, bone of your bone, flesh of your flesh, loving and caring in the world.

And now let us pray the prayer that Jesus taught us:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP, p. 336

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presiding Priest breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

ACCLAMATION AFTER THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

A COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

All are welcome to come forward to receive Holy Communion.

Gluten-free wafers are available in addition to bread.

Wine may be received either directly from the chalice or by using an individual plastic cup.

Cups are located on a table in front of the first pew on the right as you face the altar.

After receiving communion, please deposit your cup in the glass container located on the right as you head back down the aisle.

If you prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest to indicate your desire to the priest.

SEASON OF CREATION

In an ecumenical effort to lift up the importance of caring for God's creation in a time when the climate is changing and the planet is groaning, the Episcopal Church is encouraging congregations to worship into a Season of Creation using newly approved liturgical resources. Here at St. Barnabas, we will be observing a Season of Creation September 14 – October 5. The hope is that we will deepen in our active and prayerful stewardship of the earth and all her creatures at this pivotal moment.
