BARNABAS
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II The Fifth Sunday of Easter

Year A

May 3, 2026 ♦ 10:30 a.m.

Welcome to St. Barnabas

Your presence is a blessing. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of The Episcopal Church, simply relax into worship and let the congregation carry you through the liturgy. Please know that all are welcome at Christ's table!

The red book is the Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue book is the Hymnal 1982.

Assisted listening devices are available in the narthex. Restrooms are located through the plaza and in the administrative building directly ahead upon entering. Please ask an usher for directions to our Godly Play classroom for children age 4 and older.

Prelude

Entrance Hymn

Hymnal 210, The day of resurrection

Opening Acclamation

BCP 355

Presider Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People* Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Collect for Purity

Presider and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Hymnal 421, All glory be to God on high

Collect of the Day

Presider God be with you.

People* And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Liturgy Of The Word

The First Lesson

Acts 7:55-60

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Stephen gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. "Look," he said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!" But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he died.

The Second Lesson

1 Peter 2:2-10

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation—if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture:

“See, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious;
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe,

“The stone that the builders rejected
has become the very head of the corner”,
and

“A stone that makes them stumble,
and a rock that makes them fall.”

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Once you were not a people,
but now you are God's people;
once you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Silence.

 Gospel Acclamation Cantor, then all.

The Holy Gospel

John 14:1-14

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.” Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

 The Sermon

 The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People, by Margaret McGee, 2010, adapted

In this Easter season, we lift our hearts in gladness for the Resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ as we offer our prayers of petition and thanksgiving to our God of Life.

We pray for the nations of the earth—for those in authority, and for those under authority. Come from the four winds, O Breath of Life,

That we may live together in peace.

We pray for all bishops, priests and deacons, and for all the baptized who minister in Christ's name. We pray for all faithful people—for every human soul that turns to God in longing and in love.

Lead us to new life in you.

We pray for this congregation and for the future that you intend for us. We pray especially for the Profile and Call Committees as they prepare and search for our next rector.

We pray in thanksgiving and in trust that all shall be well.

We pray for this world, our garden home—for the rain and the snow, the seed and the sprout—for the birthing room and the last place of rest—for every new creation.

Strengthen us to care well for all you have entrusted to our care.

We pray for those in need of healing and those who could use extra help just now. We pray for our own needs and those of others, especially for... and those we now name. Living God: You call us to healing and new life in you.

We pray for guidance and strength through our time of trial.

Lead us in the way of your love and life.

We pray for those who have died, especially... and those we now name; for all who mourn. Eternal One: Bring them home and gather them in.

We give thanks for life's triumph over death as we give thanks for the many blessings in our lives... Very importantly, help us to know your power working in and through the challenges we face.

In you, may sorrow turn to joy.

Remembering Mary our Savior's mother, Barnabas, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to you our Living God.

To you, O Lord of life.

And now, let us say together the Collect for Our Time of Transition...

Gracious, loving, and changeless God: you bless us with your steadfast presence here at St. Barnabas known in the gifts of beautiful music, worship, caring, and serving in our midst. We offer joy and thanksgiving for the life we share, for the stable foundation on which we stand, for all that has been and all that is yet to come. Grant us wisdom, patience, and joyful anticipation as we navigate this time of transition. Keep our hearts and minds open to new possibilities. Help us to grow, even as we patiently wait. Direct us toward a partner in ministry who will support us in becoming ever more your Beloved Community, that we may live the Gospel in the world loving our neighbors as ourselves. With grateful hearts we praise you, compassionate and loving friend, source of life and all goodness. We pray this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Presider

Holy One, even before we call, you answer; while we are yet speaking, you hear. We offer up these prayers in the name of the Risen Christ—our Savior, Redeemer, and Friend. Amen.

The Confession is omitted during Eastertide.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

Blessed are you, gracious God,...

The Great Thanksgiving continues through the Memorial Acclamation...

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection,...

The Great Thanksgiving continues through the Great Amen...

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP, p. 364

Presider and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

This setting may be sung full by all, or by the choir, or as a versicle and response.

The Invitation to Communion

Communion of the People

All are welcome to come forward to receive Holy Communion. Gluten-free wafers are available in addition to bread. Wine may be received either directly from the chalice or by using an individual plastic cup. Cups are located on a table in front of the first pew on the right as you face the altar. We ask that you not intinct the bread (dip the bread into the chalice). After receiving communion, please deposit your cup in the glass container located on the right as you head back down the aisle. If you prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest to indicate your desire to the priest.

Communion Music

Hymnal 487, Come, my way

 or  The Post-Communion Prayer

Presider and People

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

 Closing Hymn

Hymnal 525, The church's one foundation

Dismissal

Our Mission

We are a community of faith that welcomes and values all people. We commit to follow Christ, serve others, grow in faith, and transform the world by sharing God's love.

Land Acknowledgment

St. Barnabas Episcopal Church acknowledges that the land on which we gather is within the ancestral territory of the "People of Clear Salt Water," the Suquamish People. Expert fisherman, canoe builders, and basket weavers, the Suquamish live in harmony with the lands and waterways along Washington's Central Salish Sea as they have for thousands of years. Here, the Suquamish live and protect the land and waters of their ancestors for future generations as promised by the Point Elliot Treaty of 1855.
